Alpine Artwalk 2011, November 18th & 19th 2011.

This year is unlike any other, we have all had to deal with the recession, deficiency of tourism, wildfires, and drought. Due to these factors lack of sales...we need a break!

Gallery Night in its infancy, 18 years ago, was "perfect timing". The cultural hungry locals needed a social event that inspired and intrigued them to look closely at the art's community that was growing and surrounding them. It gave them an opportunity to get out and meet the artists as well as have an enjoyable evening meandering with long time friends. Now the event has expanded and attracted patrons from all over the United States, Canada and Mexico.

It is with those grass roots ideas that we are here today with an award winning event that boosts our local economy, supports our local library, donates to area wide schools, supports our volunteer fire department and gives to an art scholarship fund at Sul Ross State University.

This year's event will be featured in Texas Monthly, Southern Living, Cowboys and Indians, Texas Highways, and Texas Music. It is our year to SHINE!

The ARTWALK 2011 silent auction will be held at the Granada Theatre, the Alpine Public Library will be in touch with each location to work out the details in advance of this year's event.

The Art Car Parade will be held downtown Alpine on November 19th at noon. Parade route begins at City Hall and travels east bound on Holland Ave towards 118 south arriving at Jackson Field. All art cars, art bikes, art dogs, art animals, skateboards, motorcycles, hotrods and classic cars are invited to join in the parade. Any interested participants please contact info@artwalk.com

Free music all weekend long at the BUDWEISER stage located centrally in downtown Alpine between Holland and Ave. E. on 5th Street. Bonnie Bishop of Nashville, native Matt Skinner, The Rockin' one man band Lincoln Durham of Austin will be bringing it home Friday evening. The Legendary Texas Troubadour, Ray Wylie Hubbard, a regional favorite, will be center stage at 10 PM Saturday the 19th to take down the house. He has performed for the last three years and seems to be the local's favorite Texas singer/songwriter of all times.

ARTWALK has been acclaimed as the marquee event of the Big Bend Region. We hope to live up to this accolade; we are counting on your continuing efforts and appreciate your support of Artwalk.

Viva Artwalk!
